2016 Impact Report Highlights

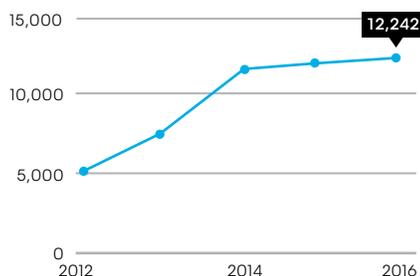

Bloomberg, the global business and financial information and news leader, is committed to mainstreaming sustainable finance and business, engaging our employees and communities, and reducing our carbon emissions. To learn more about Bloomberg's sustainability efforts in the area of Product, People and Planet, thought leadership and progress against our 2020 goals, view the annual Impact Report available for download, along with supplemental content, at bloomberg.com/bcause. A brief overview is provided below.

Product

Our products and services provide timely and actionable information to the world's most influential audiences. Our primary purpose is to serve our customers' current and future analytical needs. Increasingly, Bloomberg integrates sustainability information—about both risks and opportunities—into our products and services. Our service supports the growth of sustainable finance by offering access to comprehensive, actionable sustainable finance information and integrated analytics.

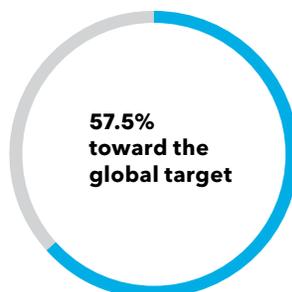

Equities: ESG Data Usage

Bloomberg BNA Sustainable Business Summit

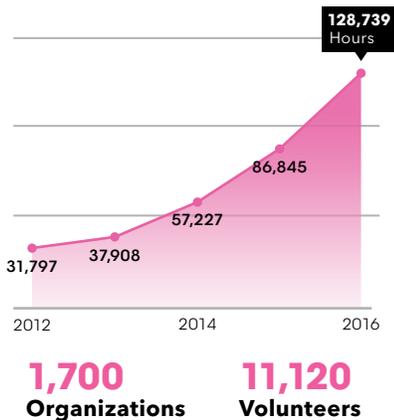

Bloomberg convened leaders, investors and financial decision-makers, government officials, media observers, and other key stakeholders to discuss how businesses are embedding sustainability initiatives that are both good for business and good for society. The Summit focused on driving growth and profit opportunities through sustainable social and environmental business practices, and what these developments mean for investors.

People

Our employees bring a spirit of innovation and collaboration that has made Bloomberg the premier provider of key information for business, finance and news around the world. We are also dedicated to connecting our business to the larger world. Through our employee engagement and social impact groups, Bloomberg strives to achieve greater impact for our employees, our partners and our communities.

Philanthropy & Engagement: Employee Service
