B-Unit 3

technical information

Description

The B-Unit 3 is a device designed to ensure the identity of a Bloomberg Anywhere® user when logging on. The device will allow for secure access to a user's Bloomberg Terminal® account.

Each B-Unit 3 is registered to a particular Bloomberg Anywhere user's account. Logging in consists of activating the device with a valid finger scan, and getting a session ID from the terminal display using Bloomberg's Screen-Sync technology to create a unique login code.

The B-Unit 3 is a compact and portable device.

- The B-Unit 3 can be used with both the Bloomberg Terminal and Bloomberg Anywhere.
- The integrated biometric sensor ensures that only the registered Bloomberg Anywhere user can use the B-Unit 3 device to login.
- The B-Unit 3 OLED displays login status information.
- During the Screen-Sync operation, the B-Unit 3 receives data via an integrated light sensitive photo-diode.

- The B-Unit 3 has an expected life of 2+ years.
- The B-Unit 3 stores the authentication template in a secure on-board memory location.

B-Unit 3 setup & use

Enrolling your B-Unit

When you first receive the B-Unit 3 you will go through a short procedure to register the device with your account and to enroll your finger with the device.

If you are already a Bloomberg user, log in and run BA <GO>. New users, open the Bloomberg Professional application and press <GO> to bring up the login screen.

- Enter your username and password and press <GO>.
- Read the Privacy Notice, and check the box, then "Get Started" or <PG FWD>.
- Enter the eight-digit serial number located on the back of the B-Unit 3 device and press <GO>.

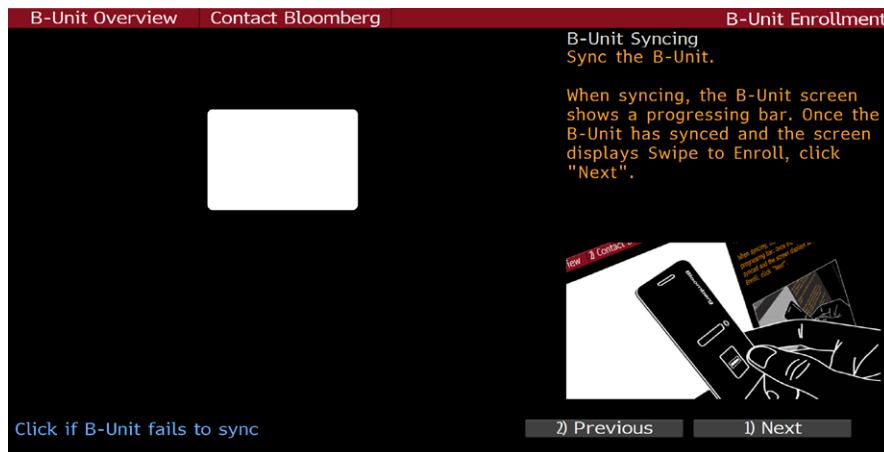

- Turn on the B-Unit 3 by pressing the power button. The screen will display one of two options: 'Ready to sync' or 'Swipe to verify'.
- Select the option the B-Unit 3 is displaying, then click 'Next'.
- If the B-Unit 3 displays 'Swipe to verify', press the power button three times, which will reset the B-Unit 3 and then display "Ready to sync".

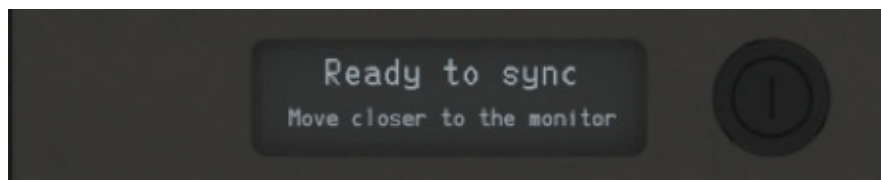

If you are re-enrolling on your B-Unit 3, press the power button 3 times when the display reads 'Swipe to Verify' to place the device into 'Reset Mode.'

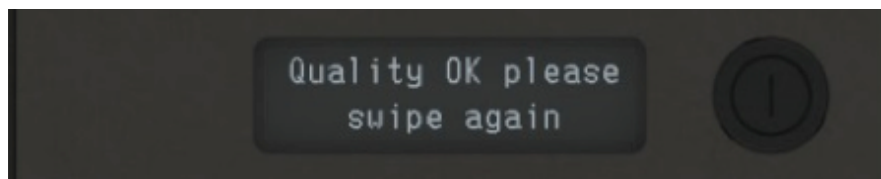

- Hold the B-Unit 3 up to the flashing area on the screen, lining up the B-Unit 3 device with the on-screen graphic. If the B-Unit 3 display shows 'Move closer to the monitor' you may need to move the B-Unit 3 closer to the monitor or make sure the B-Unit 3 is aligned to the B-Unit 3 on-screen graphic. The B-Unit 3 display will show a progress bar indicating that data is being received.

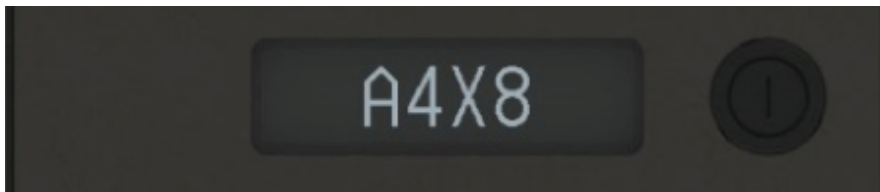

- When ready the B-Unit 3 will display 'Ready to enroll finger' then 'Swipe to enroll.'

- Select a finger to use with the B-Unit 3. You will be prompted to swipe you finger several times. Swipe your finger downward across the biometric sensor, making sure to keep your finger in contact with the sensor as you swipe.

- If enrollment is successful then you will be shown a four-character code on the B-Unit 3 display. If you were not able to enroll, you can try again by turning the B-Unit 3 back on and repeating the enrollment procedure from that step.

- Enter the four-character code into the 'B-Unit 3 Code' text field on the Bloomberg enrollment screen and press <GO>.
- You will see an "Enrollment Successful" screen and be prompted to login.

Logging in

Once you have enrolled and registered your B-Unit 3, you will be able to use the B-Unit 3 to login.

Bloomberg Terminal® – Press the <GO> key to bring up the Bloomberg Terminal® login screen.

Bloomberg Anywhere – Go to bba.bloomberg.net in an internet browser.

Bloomberg Anywhere for iPhone®, iPad® or Android® – Open the Bloomberg Anywhere app

- Enter your username and password on the login screen and press <GO>.
- Turn on your B-Unit 3 by pressing the power button. The display will show 'Bloomberg' then 'Swipe to verify.'

- Swipe the finger that you have enrolled, downward across the biometric sensor, making sure to keep your finger in contact with the sensor as you swipe.
- If verification is successful you will see the screen-sync progress bar on the B-Unit 3 Display.<sup>1</sup> Hold the B-Unit 3 up to the flashing area on the screen, lining up the B-Unit 3 device with the on-screen graphic. If the B-Unit 3 display shows 'Move closer to the monitor' you may need to move the B-Unit 3 closer to the monitor. The B-Unit 3 progress bar will indicate that data is being received.

- When screen-sync completes a four-character will appear on the B-Unit 3 display.

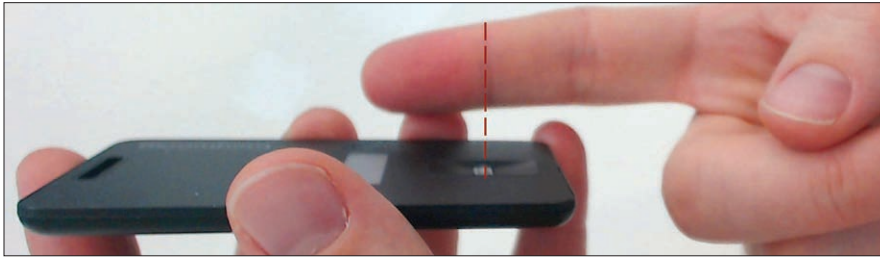

- Enter the four-character code into the 'B-Unit 3 Code' text field and press <GO> to login to your account.

<sup>1</sup>The B-Unit Token will be displayed above the screen-sync progress bar.

Finger swiping tips

- Line up the first crease of your finger with the center of the sensor.

- Make sure your finger is straight along the center of the B-Unit 3 and that you swipe in a straight line downward over the sensor.

- Start with your finger parallel to the top of the B-Unit 3. Swipe downward slowly and lightly, adjusting your hand so that your finger remains in contact with the sensor.
- Do not swipe with just the tip of the finger.
- Press lightly and swipe slowly.

Power down

The B-Unit 3 will turn itself off after a period of time of inactivity. To manually power down the B-Unit 3, press and hold the power button for three seconds.

If you should need to re-enroll on the B-Unit 3 with another finger, please contact Bloomberg technical support.

Returning the B-Unit

If you are already a Bloomberg user and are replacing an existing B-Unit, you cease being a Bloomberg user, or for any other reason you cease using your B-Unit 3 or any other B-Unit, you must return the device to Bloomberg.
